CONNEX COLLEGIATE/YOUNG ADULT (CYA): Thank you to Angelo Agonoy, last Sabbath's speaker. When we are vulnerable, it means we open up not to wallow in our situation, but to lift our eyes together to God in hope. We can look together at His promises. We cry out together for comfort, wisdom, help, and faith. We listen to one another and labor together in prayer, because sometimes we're too feeble to pray alone. Weakness and vulnerability remind us that we are dependent on God and God is sufficient. God loves to meet us in our moments of need and to give us more of His grace as we seek it moment by moment.
