PASTOR'S NOTE

“Let me ask you this. What would you do if you had a hundred sheep and one of them wandered off? Wouldn't you leave the ninety-nine on the hillside and go look for the one that had wandered away?” Matt 18:12

I just finished reviewing our directory listing of all our members in eAdventist, I was glad, sad, and disheartened, all at the same time. I was glad when I saw all the families and names of our members and challenged to get to know every one of you. I was sad as I saw so many of our members recently died in the arms of Jesus. And I was disheartened as I realized that so many of those in our directory are maybe attending another church or not attending church at all. What would Jesus say if He was rewriting the parable above?

Family, we have some real “soul searching” in the sense of: 1. Seeking for the sheep who are “spiritually lost” and 2. As a church in terms of us asking, “What are we going to do about it?” I believe that our evangelism is a “wake-up call.” If we aren't concerned about those who are missing and lost in our family, then are we simply playing church and becoming “a club for the saints?” This afternoon at 3 pm, we will have a workshop on tips and ideas of how we may possibly reach “the one.” It will be on zoom, and I pray that every single elder, deacon, officer, or member take a real interest and join us for what may be a possible turning point for our church. So join us today at 3 p.m. – ID 316 024 1276 | Passcode: LoveGod Maybe, what Jesus would tell us is to, “Love God, Love Others, and Seek the Lost.”
