PASTOR'S NOTE

People go through hard times. You don't have to think too hard or too long about the "hard times" you and your loved ones have gone through the past two years. Life has a way of doing this to all of us, doesn't? The Apostle Paul (who wrote this verse -Romans 8:38, 39) had been through lots of trouble: unjust persecution, famine, false arrest, shipwreck, threat of murder, and so much more. Can you relate? Yet, he remained confident in the truth that God's love knows no end. Are you this confident, too? Allow me to be very clear! There isn't anything that we have done, should have done, or that's been done to us that can keep God from loving us. Amen? His love is constant and unstoppable. Amen? Know that the Lord is with you today and loves you beyond measure! Amen? May the life, death and resurrection of Jesus Christ remind us in a powerful, meaningful and experiential way the promise and reality of these verses.

– Pastor Dan
