PASTOR'S NOTE

Maligayang Sabado! Happy Sabbath to you all. I just want to begin by wishing a Happy Father's Day. This may include Dads, Stepfathers, Lolos, Uncles, older Brothers, Coaches, Teachers, or even Pastors who play a vital role in the mentorship of a child's life. Thank you for making an impactful difference in the lives of young people. If you recently lost your father, this may be a challenging time. But I pray that this is an opportunity to be thankful for the wonderful memories and blessings that your father played in your life.

Last week was a High Sabbath as we celebrated Filipino-American Friendship Day. Thank you for inviting your friends and relatives as we not only remembered our roots but honored those in our community who are in the front line. I want to give a special thanks to everyone involved in making last Sabbath special, from Sabbath School to Family Worship. A shout-out to our Hospitality Committee as they once again hosted a wonderful fellowship lunch with food and dessert overflowing.

Today, what a blessing to have with us some GC delegates from the Philippines. They have a powerful story and testimony to share that I am sure will inspire you. Talking about testimony, the sermon of our title today is, "Is Christianity Unique?" If so, what makes it unique? What differentiates Christianity from all the other religion in the world? Are you able to tell someone the distinguishing features of Christianity, or is it simply a matter of preference? I hope that today's sermon will help you identify why you are choosing to be a Christian today.

Let us continue to make a difference in the world today,

Pastor Manny
