PASTOR'S NOTE

Our Scripture says, "With man this is impossible, but with God all things are possible." We should not diminish the strength of Jesus' words, nor fail to see their application in our own affluent society. Who among you would relate to this rich young ruler? Riches are a problem because they tend to make us satisfied with this life, instead of longing for God's return. As well, sometimes riches are sought at the expense of seeking God.

The illustration that Jesus - It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle - was meant to be somewhat humorous. We immediately think of this as being impossible.

One problem with riches is that they encourage a spirit of false independence, very much like the church of Laodicea: "I am rich, have become wealthy, and have need of nothing" (Revelation 3:17). They were exceedingly amazed: The great amazement of the disciples was based on the idea that riches were always a sign of God's blessing.

With God, all things are possible: it is possible for the rich man to be saved. God's grace is enough to save the rich man; we have the examples of Zacchaeus, Joseph of Arimathea, and Barnabas. These all were rich men still able to put God first, not their riches. Jesus is not saying that all poor people and none of the wealthy enter the kingdom of heaven. That would exclude Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, to say nothing of David, Solomon, and Joseph of Arimathea.

Just precisely, What's possible? And What's impossible? Listen to Pastor Flickinger's take on this!
