PASTOR'S NOTE

When it comes to appointments, do you tend to be early, late, or right on time? It is interesting that we have terms such as American time, Filipino time, and Caribbean or Island time. Today, for Pastor's Appreciation Day, we are blessed to have our own Pastor Jose Manalo share the message entitled, "Men of Divine Appointment." It is hard to believe that it has already been a year since our church celebrated 16+ years of Pastor Manalo's ministry here at LLFC. Praise God that he and Ate Eppie have chosen to continue not only their membership but their ministry here. Truly, their roles may have changed, but their divine appointment continues.

I like Helen Calder's definition of a divine appointment. It is "a moment in time, in which: you encounter God, you come across a person or group that is significant in God's purposes for you, or a circumstance takes place, that you realize has been set up by the Holy Spirit." I want to suggest that your presence here today at LLFC is a divine appointment. There are many other churches you could have attended today, but the Holy Spirit led you to come to this place. I pray that your divine appointment leads you to a deep encounter with God the Father.

Finally, on behalf of the pastors here at LLFC, I want to say, "Thank you." Every pastor serving here has been called by divine appointment. And we are blessed by collaborating with you in serving our Lord Jesus Christ. Together, God uses us to further his work, meet the needs of his children, and hasten the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Maranatha
Pastor Manny
