PASTOR'S NOTE

It can be exciting and overwhelming when the Christmas season comes around. After Thanksgiving, students are already looking forward to Christmas break. Parents worry about travel costs for the family. Planners and organizers are already in full throttle, making sure upcoming parties, celebrations, and gatherings are ready.

In the process, we deplete ourselves from the stress, worry, and pure exhaustion. Today, we will be sharing a brief message on loving ourselves. Then, we will be blessed with beautiful music from our children as they lead in our worship service. My prayer is that, regardless of how your week has been and what the holidays will be like in the coming days, you will love yourself just as Jesus loves you.

Welcome to Loma Linda Filipino. We're glad you chose to worship with us. May you be blessed in fellowship. Better yet, may you be a blessing to someone today.

Maligayang Pasko (Merry Christmas),
~Pastor Mark
