PASTOR'S NOTE

A Christian not extra thrilled or excited celebrating the death, resurrection, and coming of Jesus will have to re-think their reason for being a Christian. Easter Weekends are the most attended church weekend in the US, with Christmas and Thanksgiving behind it. This tells me that as a nation, traditional, religious or not, we are still, for the most part, a country that believes in and values Jesus and what He means to us.

As we worship today, lay down your burdens, your sins, your woes, and your worries symbolized by Jesus' burial, and leave our campus assured of the grace, forgiveness, and salvation in the resurrection climaxed by the promise of heaven as we look to Jesus' soon return.

A special thanks to LLFC Choir, Ensemble, and all worship participants as you help us celebrate Jesus in our worship services today.

Khag paskha sameakh (Happy Easter) Church family,
~Mark Sigue
