Q11: What is an unrestricted fund?

All: An unrestricted fund has no restrictions in how the money is used by our church; there are no strings attached. The monies in an unrestricted fund may be used for whatever purpose is deemed necessary. Typically, this money goes toward normal operating costs or our church budget to sustain LLFC by paying our monthly debt.

PASTOR'S NOTE

Pray you had a great Independence Week. A time to remember when people "Stood" for their belief. We are finishing the series on "Deep Calling" today with "Call to Witness." It isn't in order of the ones listed in the book, but it fits nicely after last week's sermon, "Call to Serve." I am also merging it with Growing Together's study on Daniel 3. So, my sermon today is, "STAND."

So let me ask, "Have you ever stood for what you believe?" The answer is, we are given a chance to "STAND" every day for our faith and belief. Standing for our faith is not a one-time action, but a daily choice. But what happens when beliefs differ? The answer, stand up for what God has convicted you. Here's the irony, in Daniel 3, two parties had differing beliefs. One party tried to impose their beliefs, the other simply stood for theirs. You can read for yourself about the outcome. But my take is, when God convicts you, simply "STAND." You do your part; God will do His. And at the end, God will be victorious. Let us "STAND" together on God's promises found in His Word.
