PASTOR'S NOTE

The month of graduation heralds a crescendo of jubilation, a medley of reunions, farewells, and the liberating exhale of relief. Whether it's the culmination of academic endeavors, the reprieve from daily school routines, or the respite for hardworking educators, this moment invites reflection amid the revelry.

Amidst the peaks and valleys of the academic journey, one might pause to ponder: did divine providence falter in permitting certain trials, tribulations, or missteps this year?

Join us in worship this Sabbath as we are reminded of the steadfast assurance that God's hand never falters, perhaps granting us a ""Divine Mulligan""—a chance to recalibrate, learn, and grow from life's trials.
